

EHA-SWG Scientific Meeting "the Blood and the Child - New Insights in Pediatric Benign Hematology"

Register now

About the meeting

Take the chance to learn from five EHA Scientific Working Group representatives. During this three-day meeting you will focus on red blood cells and their diseases, iron metabolism defects, granulocyte and constitutional failure syndromes, amongst others.

Dates: April 7-9, 2022

Location: Rome, Italy

Register now

Online registration is open. Benefit from the reduced early registration fee by registering before:

February 28, 2022 (23:59 CET).

Abstract submission

Submit an abstract before February 24, 2022 (23:59 CEST) for inclusion in the meeting program and discuss it with the international faculty and your peers. Presenting authors will receive a separate invitation.

Program topics:

- Bone marrow failures syndromes,
- Hemopoietic stem cell transplantation,
- Consultative pediatric hematology,
- Red cell disorders,
- Gene therapy and gene editing,
- Bleeding and coagulation disorders.

eha.fyi/SWGpeds_mtg